

The HR Data Gateway

Since 2013, our company has provided an innovative approach to outsourcing the employment and income verification (VOIE) process. Many HR or payroll departments perform this service in-house with significant labor cost. Or, companies may outsource, often to the largest provider, which may put their data at risk of being re-used, re-sold or further monetized beyond the permissible purpose authorized by the employee.

Our innovative approach to providing employee data protection while outsourcing has led to the creation of the Vault EDGe Gateway, a real-time API with all major HCM platforms. This automated platform allows HR teams to securely regulate HR data access for HR tech service providers.

With Vault Verify, employers save time and money by outsourcing time-consuming processes, which reduces labor, minimizes data exposure, and ensures FCRA compliance as well as compliance with state laws such as CPRA.

Additionally, Vault Verify is free for employers, and only takes a few weeks to implement!
